Defeat Yale at Polo Grounds---Wishard's Helen Nichols Runs Second at Newmarket -- Colonel Bruce and the Jockey Club in a Crisis.

The Yale Boys Put Up a Strong Game at the Polo Grounds Yesterday.

"Dad" Clarke's Pitching a Feature, and He Did Not Give One Base on Balls.

THE COLLEGIANS HAD HARD LUCK.

They Hit the Ball Hard and Strong, but Did Not Place It Well-Their Showing Was an Improvement on That of Princeton.

It was a very fortunate move on the part of Arthur Irwin in selecting "Dad" Charke to pitch against the Yale team at the Polo Grounds. Any other twirler outside of Meekin would have had no show against the hard-hitting aggregation from New Haven, and even Clarke had to extend himself to hold the collegians down.

The game was by far the best that has been played at the Polo Grounds this year, and though the Giants won by the score of 4 to 0, they had to hustle pretty lively to do it.

Clarke really deserves most of the credit of winning, as he not only kept the collegians' hits well scattered, but he lined up two pretty singles himself and sent in three of the four runs scored. "Dad" did not give a single base on balls, and Greenway only gave one.

Trudeau was scheduled to do the pitching for the visitors, but at a the last moment it was decided to put in Greenway. He is a brother to the famous wi Yale catcher who handled "Dutch" Carter's cannon ball curves for several seasons, and is a likely young fellow. He pitched for five innings, and only four hits were made off his delivery. Smith relieved him after this inning, and he, too, pitched good ball, though he was not well supported. The coolegians, however, played a good all-around game, and made a much better showing than did the Princetons, who faced two weak pitchers.

When the agreement was entered into When the agreement was entered into many who were conversant with the intricacles of the case professed their belief that it would not outlive the year. It did, but the inevitable complications and differences of opinion have finally brought the affair to its expected end. It has been an open secret that the relations between the Jockey Club and Colonel Bruce have been very strained for the past six months, and a climax was recently reached when Colonel Bruce acted in direct contravention to the orders of the stewards of the Jockey Club.
